"Come and See"

Dear Parish Family and Friends,

One of the phrases my children use often with Presbyteria and I is "come and see". They use this phrase when they are excited about something good they have done. They use this phrase with great joy as to announce that they have a wonderful surprise for us to witness. They use this phrase so Presbyteria and I can participate in their joy. It is a call that is joyful and one that is not unique to my child. It is a call that our Church extends to us as well.

Our Lord wants more than anything for us to "come and see" in order to participate in His joy. The month of November is a time of the year that we are called, called to prepare ourselves to receive this great joy, the joy of the Nativity. The example that is put in front of us is that of St. Andrew. He was the one who heard this call from Christ to, "Come and see". He heard this call to see who Christ was and accepted it. We must remember that this call is for all of us. We are called to "come and see". An author once wrote, "The Church invites us during this season of Advent to identify ourselves with St. Andrew-since he was the first of the people of Israel to follow 'Him of whom Moses in the law, and also the prophets, wrote' (John 1:45)-and to share in the joy of his discovery."

This month we have all been called, called to "come and see" our Lord. We have been invited to joyfully discover the Christ child. We have been called to do this together as a Christ centered family. This is now our second Nativity season together. We have another chance to journey together to receive the Christ child. We have another opportunity to accept this invitation to grow closer to Christ and one another. I look forward to walking with you as we go to meet Him.

In Christ,

Father Larry

The President's Message by George W. Sares

As we are approaching the end of the year, it is a time of reflection and giving thanks. We all need to thank the Lord for all the blessings he has bestowed upon our parish for the past 100 years.

I would like to thank all of you for all that you do for our Parish. It is greatly appreciated.

Please save the date of December 6, 2015 for the Parish Assembly meeting – it will be immediately after the Divine Liturgy.

Have a safe and happy thanksgiving and as always if you have any comments, questions, or concerns, please let me know.

Philoptochos News by Susie Doukides

The Ladies of Philoptochos have never let a minute go by without keeping themselves busy with Philanthropic new, fun, exciting projects and activities.

On September 27th we were off and running literally to fulfill our National Project for Breast Cancer Awareness, Susan G. Komen "Race for the Cure". Our runners, walkers, and families gathered together before the race in the Cathedral parking lot and "get ready, get set, and go....!" After the race, the runners were full of pride and accomplishment, along with the epic number of almost 20,000 participants from Northwest Ohio in the sea of pink in downtown Toledo. Our "Greeks on the Go" returned to Holy Trinity Cathedral to pass a collection tray to donate to breast cancer research. It was Ministry Sunday at our Cathedral and we were able to view our Organizations' and Clubs' displays of all missions, activities, and outreach programs. Our Cathedral has so much to be proud of for the work we do.

On Wednesday, October 21st, Philoptochos hosted Aurora House Residents and their children at our Community Center. We collected items for the Ladies of the Home and Olympia Ntakos prepared a delicious Chicken Oregano Dinner with all the trimmings that was definitely enjoyed by all. Aurora House was established in 1985 and is a transitional housing that offers life skill programs that empowers homeless women and children to help get their lives together and live independently.

A big thank you and appreciation to Pauline Biernacki, Debbie Morris, Olympia Ntakos and their faithful group of helpers for this heart-warming evening.

Philoptochos Sunday is the Feast Day of Saints Kosmas and Damian, the Patron Saints of National Philoptochos. On this day, we honor the memories of our Philoptochos members who have passed on. I would like to thank Dawn Anagnos and Joyce Anagnos for making the Artoklasia, Olympia Ntakos for the Koliva and Maria Tzanakis for arrangements for coffee hour refreshments table after Divine Liturgy.

The Ladies of Philoptochos Society is pleased to announce we will be holding our second annual event "GREECE UNCORKED" on November 7th. Philoptochos will be donating a large portion of funds to Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center. Saint Nicholas was completely destroyed in the collapse of World Trade Center Tower Two during the September 11th, 2001 terrorist attacks. Saint Nicholas was the only house of worship destroyed on 9/11. Archbishop Demetrios of America inaugurated a dialogue with then Governor George Pataki to rebuild the Church. "The new Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church at Ground Zero will be much more than a rebuilt parish. It will be a National Shrine for our Holy Archdiocese and will be a place of pilgrimage for our nation and the whole world." It will be a National Shrine on hallowed ground. We will also use a portion of this year's funds to support the following area shelters and non-profit organizations; The Daughter's Project; The Bethany House; Life Connection of Northwest Ohio and The Family House. "GREECE UNCORKED" will be a great evening filled with fun, Greek food, beer, wine, and entertainment including silent auction and raffle. Our top chefs Maria and Andreas Petros and Jim Mitsopoulos will prepare the scrumptious food and will not disappoint. Great gratitude to Kelly Yakumithis and her wonderful committee consisting of Pam and Jim Martin, Natalie Jackson, Kathy Chaka, Monny Yakumithis, Debbie and Stacey Morris, Phyllis Manton, Debbie Paterakis, Yanula Stathulis, Sonia Ross and Ted Voudouris. I would also like to thank Ballas Buick for being a major donor for our event. If you have not purchased tickets, don't delay. You will have a wonderful time.

With God's grace and love, we will achieve our declaration of victory throughout Holy Trinity.

STEWARDSHIP

by Kathy Chaka & Joyce Anagnos Co-Chairs

Stewardship 2016 Kick-Off Campaign

“Those that seek the Lord shall never be in want of any good thing”

Sunday, October 18th was Stewardship Sunday at our beloved Holy Trinity, and we are very excited to say that our 2016 Kick-Off Campaign is off to an amazing start! It was so uplifting to see so many people in church wearing the wine colored heart pins signifying that they had turned in their 2016 commitment card and had truly given from the heart as well. Thank you for understanding and realizing that we have to be proactive and not reactive. We have to be responsible and continually budget and plan for the future needs of our Cathedral. Your Commitment Cards are what makes this possible.

As you read above, this year's National Stewardship Campaign slogan tells us that “those who seek the Lord shall never be in want of any good thing.” Holy Trinity truly embraces this philosophy and it is clearly evident in all our ministries. There is a lot of good work going on here at Holy Trinity. We all devote so much time, to do so many good things, for so many people. It is vital that we realize that these good works all take place under this roof, in this home, known as Holy Trinity. If we wish to continue to do God's work and help as many people as we possibly can, we need this place, this home that we operate from, to stay open and stay healthy. We can do this by keeping our Stewardship growing in a positive direction to support all our Ministries!

We have only two months left to go to complete our 2015 Stewardship Commitments. When you filled out your 2015 Stewardship Commitment Card, it reflected a time period from January of 2015, through this December. So, to end our 2015 campaign successfully, we encourage everyone to send in the remainder of your pledge by the end of December. Call Carole if you have any questions concerning your Stewardship. We would also like to thank all of you who have already fulfilled your 2015 Stewardship! Your generosity is keeping our Cathedral alive and thriving!

Something New...

Change can sometimes be uncertain, but it can also be exciting! What we are doing here at Holy Trinity is working! We thank you again for embracing the change and together, we will work towards having 100% of our parishioners filling out 2016 Stewardship Commitment Cards. Something new we are doing this year is that whenever someone fills out and turns in their 2016 Commitment Card, their name will not only appear in the Echo each month, but will be displayed in the Community Center on a display we are creating. Finally, please always remember, your Stewardship Commitment Card is NOT a contract, it can ALWAYS be changed. It is, in the simplest of terms, a way to help our Church better manage its operations and Ministries. Thank You!!!

KROGER COMMUNITY REWARDS UPDATE

by Mary Dedes

Philoptochos continues to participate in this PAINLESS, PROFITABLE & PERPETUAL fundraiser.

Please, do not hesitate to ask a friend, co-worker, relative, employee, if they have designated a charity on their Kroger Plus Card yet. And if they say NO, ask them to name us! Instructions are in the box below.

The website to join or re-enroll is www.krogercommunityrewards.com . We are in the Columbus district. Create an account if you do not already have one and follow the prompts. Our name is Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Philoptochos and our ID# is 81429. Make a note of your Kroger password and also put a reminder on your computer to re-enroll in April.

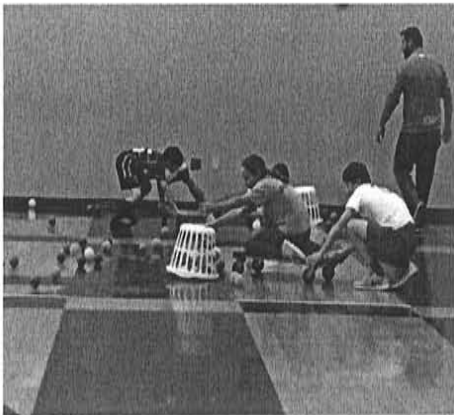

We thank everyone for their cooperation and participation. Questions? Please see Mary Dedes.

Altar Boy News

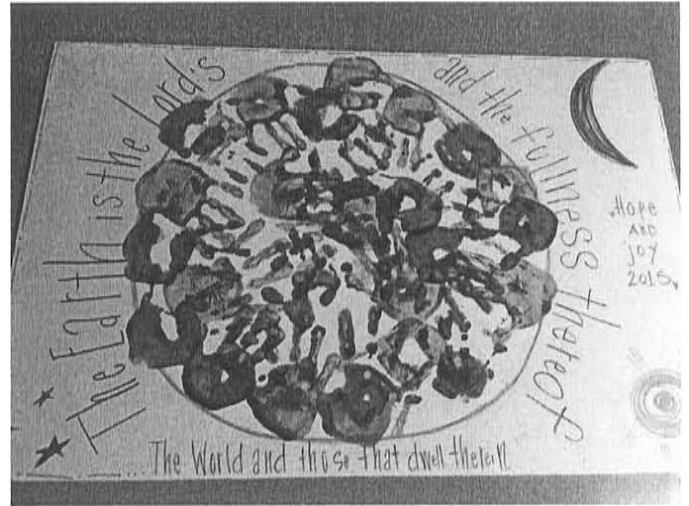

Last month our Altar boys had their first meeting of the year and their first outing of the year. The Altar boys, along with Mr. Tom, Father Larry, and some of the dads went to a UT game. The boys had a great time. Special thanks to Mr. Pete Papadimos who donated the tickets to the Altar boys and to Mr. Chris Theodorou who fed the boys during his tail gate. The Altar boys will meet again in December in order to get ready for the Nativity season. We are looking forward to another outing as well.

JOY Group News

Last month the JOY kids had a great time at their first meeting of the year. This year we have decided to separate the JOY kids during the meeting. They had a great time playing human hungry hippo! A big thank you to JOY advisor Randy Bollin for running the game! Our next meeting will be November 15th at the winter retreat. The retreat will be at church from 4:00pm-7:00pm. More information coming soon. JOY is a youth ministry for children in the 4-6 grade.

HOPE News

Hello All! We kicked off our year with awesome turnout to our October meeting. The kiddos enjoyed pizza and veggies and home-made applesauce. Father led the kids in a discussion on creation. Using their hand-prints we made an adorable art project following up the discussion. The kids loved getting their hands messy :) Our next meeting is our Christmas Retreat and is scheduled for November 15th from 4-7. Hope to see everyone there!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

by Dr. Susan Karas Sieben

We have had 4 Sunday school classes so far with an average attendance of 22. Many new young boys have signed up for altar. HOPE and JOY and GOYA are starting, and our Fall Harvest Party will be Sunday October 25 from 6-8 pm.

Preschool /Kindergarten has the largest attendance. They are focusing on the Ten Commandments, Moses's life and the first two commandments - to Love God with all your heart; Worship only God.

1st and 2nd grade studies The Holy Cross and made cross bird feeders with paper towel rolls, peanut butter and bird seed. They also learned about the Holy Trinity and compared it to an apple. The skin is God, the inside flesh is Jesus and the seeds are the Holy Spirit. Lessons from the Archdiocesan book cover Love, God's love for us, our parent's love for us and how we are to love others. October 26th is the feast day of St. Demetrios who is the Patron Saint of Thessaloniki. They are a busy class.

3rd and 4th grade are studying “Sharing God’s World”, learning about how happy we feel when we share, and the Story of Abraham’s Blessing, and God’s gift to Moses.

5th and 6th grade are perfecting the Lord’s Prayer in Greek and English; learning our Church hymn in Greek and English; studying the Exaltation of the Holy Cross with activities from “My Little Orthodox Christian Books” from Saint Nicholas Monastery in North Fort Myers, Florida. As soon as we have more students we will hand out parts for the Christmas pageant which will be December 20th Junior High has studied Philotema and watched a video on it and its meaning. They will also learn the Divine Liturgy in depth.

High School has studied prayer and happiness, the parable of the Sower and also the Feast Day of Saint Luke.

Parents, please sign up for snacks and drinks. The Sign-Up Sheet is on the bulletin board in the hallway as you enter the hall. Healthy food like fruits and veggies would be appreciated. Any interested parents who want to help in the classes or with the Christmas Pageant please contact me, my e-mail is 7sieben@bex.net or my cell is 419-450-2782.

As always we enjoy sharing the “Good News” with your children.

Daughters of Penelope News by Connie Mynihan

Our first meeting was October 8th, with a fantastic turn out at the Beirut Restaurant. A warm welcome was given to two new members who were initiated during this meeting.

A busy calendar for 2015-2016 was presented. Topping off the list is a NEW DOP Buckeye District 11 Purse Bingo Fundraiser, so keep Saturday, March 5th, 2016, twelve o’clock noon open! It will be a Designer Purse Bingo Luncheon Fundraiser, with purses from Brahmin, Coach, and Michael Kors. The Fundraiser is going to be held here at our very own Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral Community Center with Sisters from our whole district attending. For more information visit www.buckeyedistrict11.org

Joyce Anagnos is currently looking for DOP fundraisers for the Holidays. Stay tuned for more information coming shortly.

Our Second Annual Greek Town Casino Outing was held on Sunday, October 11th, 2015. Marina Cooper, John Kwiatkowski, Maria Tzanakis, and Scott Puffenbaugh were very “entertaining” traveling to and from the casino with our 50/50 raffles, Jello shots, assorted drinks, and snack deliveries. A good time was had by all.

October was the National Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Domestic violence thrives when we are silent; but if we take a stand and work together, we can end domestic violence.

November 5th will be a big day for our chapter with the District #11 Lodge Visitation to Dodona #24. We will be celebrating Daughters of Penelope Founder’s Day and all past Dodona #24 Presidents.

Our next meeting and dinner will be with our fellow Ahepans November 5th, 2015 at the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral Community Center.

The Daughters of Penelope wishes everyone a happy and safe Thanksgiving.

News from AHEPA by George Arvanitis

Hello again from AHEPA Chapter 118. We had kind of a light turnout for our October meeting. We welcomed a new member, Chris Rongakis and discussed a number of things on this year's agenda. Number one being the addition of more new members! AHEPA has a lot to offer not only to our community but also to persons both here and abroad. Through the various programs and foundations AHEPA is able to make a difference in many people’s lives. Our education and scholarship programs annually awards a half million dollars to deserving young men & women. Our Buckeye district awarded $ 40,000.00 last year alone to eligible students within our district. The AHEPA housing program provides affordable housing to low income elderly and disabled persons. AHEPA believes senior citizens should be able to live independently with dignity, even on a modest income. The AHEPA Charitable Foundation serves the community by making donations to worthy causes and endeavors such as the 9/11 relief fund, the Greek Fire Emergency Relief Fund in 2007 and the USO Care Package Program in 2003. The Cooley's Anemia Foundation provides funding for finding a cure for this fatal genetic blood disorder that effects people of Mediterranean decent.

So you see there's a lot more to AHEPA than meets the eye. We can, and do make a difference! Come on and be a part of it. Applications are available every Sunday after church during coffee hour or by contacting George Arvanitis at 419-340-3487 and I'll make sure you get one.

Next Meeting: Thursday, November 5, 2015
Where: Holy Trinity Community Center

Joint dinner with the Daughters of Penelope. Dinner is served at 6:30 p.m. with meeting to follow.

Community Cookbook by Jeanne Gatoura

With another excellent turnout at the recent Cooking Class Series, once again it's shown to be an excellent vehicle for both fundraising and promotion for the Community Cookbook. Students truly enjoyed themselves, all departing classes with smiles and giving the highest ratings on evaluation forms adding comments including "Great Fun!", "Awesome Loved it!" and "It was fabulous!! It took many hands to make it so. Many thanks".

In this month of Thanksgiving it's only appropriate to give thanks to the numerous individuals whose dedication is responsible for the Class Series to reach this level of success. Cooking Class Committee Chair Pam Martin begins by expressing her gratitude to Committee members Irene Kaufman, Yanula Stathulis, Mary Dedes, Phyllis Manton, Kathy Lawrence, Ann Mulopulos, Andy and Maria Petros and Jeanne Gatoura for the detailed pre-planning, creative ideas, promotion, and leadership during the sessions.

The entire Committee is so grateful for our talented instructors who kept students engaged with excellent demonstrations and great personal anecdotes and explanations, and for their delicious preparation of the food items which were served to each participant during classes - Olympia Ntakos for Tiropites and Apple Phyllo Dessert, Maria Petros for Kefthethes and Greek Yogurt, and Jim Mitsopoulos for Moussaka.

We also thank Carole Faoiz for her support - giving details to those who called, taking reservations, and holding reservation forms and payments. The Committee must also acknowledge Holy Trinity's website designer Gene Haberman for the wonderful flyer design and for his immediate response whenever updates or changes were needed.

For the sessions to run so smoothly, it took the hard work of volunteers who helped with kitchen pre-prep, preparing the beautiful tasting dishes, table setup, and for giving tips and advice to students while each prepared their "take-home" creation. For those tasks, many thanks to Sophie Stathopoulos, Joyce Anagnos, Maria Melas, Stacia Dimit, Karen George, Athena Mitsopoulos and George Mulopulos. Also thank you to Jim Martin for selling Greek wine which added another fun element to the atmosphere while promoting the upcoming "Greece Uncorked". Also, thank you to Terry Timmons for his help in the kitchen, with setup, and cleanup.

Finally, thank you to those in the Holy Trinity Community who spread the word about the Class Series, which was shown to be among the top ways that participants learned about the classes. And if you're curious if another Greek Cooking Class Series will be scheduled in the future, the answer is very possibly yes since there's a definite interest in learning more Greek specialties!

Remember Olives, Feta, Phyllo & More is an excellent source for your Thanksgiving Day menu ideas. A great example is Dawn Anagnos' recipe for Kefthethes on p. 80, which was used for the Oct. 6 class, is always a wonderful addition to her special occasion and holiday meals.

Happy Thanksgiving!

2015 Stewardship Update through October 15th - Our Stewardship goal for 2015 is $240,000

So far 241 Stewards have turned in a pledge cards totaling $200,797.
