Dear Parish Family and Friends,

A pastor was invited to dinner in the home of a very wealthy man in Texas. After the meal, the host led him to a place where they could get a good view of the surrounding area. Pointing to the oil wells, he boasted, "Twenty-five years ago I had nothing. Now, as far as you can see, it's all mine." Looking in the opposite direction at his sprawling fields of grain, he said, "That's all mine." Turning east toward huge herds of cattle, he bragged, "They're all mine." Then pointing to the west and a beautiful forest, he exclaimed, "That too is all mine." He paused, expecting the pastor to compliment him on his great success. The pastor, however, placing one hand on the man's shoulder and pointing heavenward with the other, simply said, "How much do you have in that direction?" The man stared blankly for a moment, then hung his head and confessed, "I never thought of that." Much of our lives is spent investing. We invest in the future of our children. We invest in our retirement. The above story is a reminder that we must invest in our relationship with Christ. During the month of November, the Church offers two reminders of how to make this investment.

The first reminder is the entrance of the Virgin Mary into the Temple. One of our hymns states, "Today the Theotokos, the temple that contains God, is led into the Temple of God". She went to the temple to become a "temple" herself. She went there and invested time in that relationship in order to become what God had planned for her. The second reminder begins on November 15th when the Church offers us an opportunity to invest more effort into our relationship with Christ. On the 15th of November we enter into the Nativity Fast. This is a time where we are asked to consider our relationship with Christ, to set aside more time in prayer, to set aside more time for those who are less fortunate, and to fast a little more.

As we get closer to Christmas we will be looking to buy and give gifts for friends and family. We will be investing time in those relationships. Let us also remember to invest more time in our relationship with the one who was born for us and for our salvation. The outcome will be a greater appreciation for the Christ child born for us on Christmas. A blessed Nativity Fast!

In Christ,

Father Larry

President's Report by Emmanuel T. Yakumithis

My fellow parishioners,

As we move closer to Thanksgiving and the end of the year, we look back and we've had a pretty good year. We are doing well in our Stewardship efforts, we had an amazing festival, and look forward to the planning of our 50th year. More importantly we are a unified parish. I cannot tell you how happy it makes me to see our parish moving forward together. We have more outreach to do, repairs and improvements to make, but as a family, we can do anything that we put our minds to.

On November 17, we will be having our parish assembly meeting. We will be discussing our progress as a parish, alternative construction plans and we will be taking nominations for parish council, audit committee and election committee. Please make every effort to attend. These decisions affect us all and everyone should be a part of the process.

Philoptochos will be hosting our community Christmas Party on December 7. An elegant evening is being planned and I'm sure that it will be a wonderful event. Details will be forthcoming.

Kelly and I along with our entire family wish all of you Happy Thanksgiving!

Philoptochos News by Pattie Senerius

PHILANTHROPY FOR GENERATIONS

The days are getting shorter, the leaves are changing colors and there's a crispness in the air. We are reminded that fall is here.

The Clergy-Laity and Philoptochos Conference was held in Troy, Michigan on September 26-28, 2019. The theme was "We Have Seen and Testify". John 4:14. Numerous topics were discussed, new initiatives were introduced, the By-Laws were clarified and a lot of questions were answered. The highlight of the conference was the celebration of His Eminence Metropolitan Nicholas' 20th anniversary of his Enthronement. Axios!

There are more than 25,000 Philoptochos members with 450 chapters. National Philoptochos gave a $25,000 disbursement to IOCC in response to the devastation in the Bahamas from Hurricane Dorian. The Philoptochos mission and legacy of charitable work has continued uninterrupted for 88 years. Our outreach is not only within our parishes and community, but globally.

On the first Sunday of November, we honor our Patron Saints Cosmas and Damianos. The two brothers assisted the poor without any desire for compensation. Because the Philoptochos Society is dedicated to helping anyone in need, they chose to celebrate the founding of their organization together with the feast day of Sts. Cosmas and Damianos. The Divine Liturgy is celebrated followed by an Artoklasia service and a memorial service for our deceased members who made countless personal sacrifices and helped our chapter grow. We will always hold their memory dear to our hearts. They are the people we have loved, who have passed their faith on to us and formed our values. They are the ones who modeled for us what it means to be a Christian and how we live our lives. The Coffee Hour after church is in honor of our beloved mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers. May their memory be eternal!

It was uplifting to see so many wearing pink during Breast Cancer Awareness. Thank you Holy Trinity for your support. Thanks to Jeanette Stambolis, Phyllis Manton, and Stephanie Georgakopoulos for passing out the pink ribbons.

We cordially invite everyone to make reservations for the December 7th Christmas Party, 6:00 P.M. at the Community Center sponsored by Philoptochos and Parish Council. Celebrate with us and enjoy an elegant evening with a gourmet dinner catered by AVI with music and dancing. What a wonderful way to start the holidays!

Daughters of Penelope News by Stacia Dimit

Greetings from Dodona Chapter #24 Daughters of Penelope!

Our first meeting of the year was held on October 3 at the Black Pearl Restaurant. Our guest speaker was Ms. Robin Miller Isenberg, Executive Director of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) of Greater Toledo. NAMI is an important organization doing good work in our community and we were interested to learn more about the services they offer.

Congratulations to Despina Pelphrey who was chosen to be the Daughter of the Year for our Chapter and District. Many thanks Despina for your hard work and dedication. You very much deserved to be honored with this award.

Also, congratulations to Marian Capranica chosen as Penelope of the Year for her service to the organization. And finally, congratulations to our chapter for winning the District award for best AHEPA relations.

Thank you to Sister Alexia Hickman for organizing the Daughters' participation in the Walk to End Alzheimer's held in Toledo on Saturday, October 12, 2019. The weather was a bit chilly but a beautiful sunny day was enjoyed by the walkers. Thank you Alexia and to all the members who participated by walking or donating. All proceeds go to research to find a cure for this heartbreaking disease.

We are decorating the Daughters of Penelope Christmas Tree on Sunday, November 24, 2019 after the church service. Decorating the tree together is a fun activity so hope you can join us.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 7, 2019 at 6 pm at our community center, honoring Founders Day with the AHEPA men who will be preparing dinner. The meal is always delicious when the AHEPAns cook.

Make a note on your calendar that the December Christmas meeting will be held on Thursday, December 5, 2019 at 6 pm at the Beirut Restaurant on Monroe Street. Should be an enjoyable evening as we celebrate the holiday season together.

As a reminder, please pay dues for 2019 and any past dues to Sophie Stathopoulos, our Treasurer, at 6535 Cornwall Court, Sylvania OH 43560.

Community Cookbook by Phyllis Manton

It was full of filotimo as always at the Holy Trinity cooking series. Once again, our committee put on two wonderful presentations.

On October 8th, participants sampled food and had the opportunity to practice working with phyllo. This class featured shredded chicken wrapped in phyllo with Bechamel sauce and Gouda cheese and two ways to work with custard/crema. We highlighted how to work with phyllo making sure to generously brush each sheet with butter, where to place the chicken, bechamel sauce and cheese, and how to roll them. Each person had their own phyllo to work with. We demonstrated how to cook the Bechamel sauce, so they know what to expect when trying this at home.

Marina Cooper graciously agreed to demonstrate how to make galaktoboureko. She was a star at the festival demonstrating galaktoboureko and again in class on the 8th. She explained how she makes her custard and a few variations that people can try. The class was able to taste galaktoboureko and bougatsa, eaten warm with powdered sugar and cinnamon. Even though it is the same filling the tastes are different because of the syrup and the cinnamon and powdered sugar. I would also say that this class shows the versatility phyllo has for making savory and sweet treats.

I am (Phyllis Manton) so grateful for the opportunity to be a presenter this year. The cookbook committee is the best and they gave me so much help and support. It is a learning curve trying to figure out how to put it all together. I have been mentored by some of the finest people around.

October 15th's class was a feast! The Petros duo, Andy and Maria, once again did not disappoint. They have supported the cooking series for six years and I know I can safely speak for everyone that we appreciate them, and we are so grateful. They make everything look effortless. They have years of experience but their ease with guests and love of food is a visual and gastronomical delight. Participants feasted on pork and chicken souvlaki, rice pilaf, green beans in tomato sauce, and tzatziki. They were able to take home marinated chicken and pork to cook at home as well as the green beans. We were given the nicest compliment, "everyone is so kind and nice". I couldn't agree more.

I don't know where we would be without the direction of Irene Kaufman and Yanula Stathulis. Their vision brought us here. Their faith, love of Holy Trinity, love of cooking and integrity make them wonderful role models. I would like to thank Pam Martin for her tireless work as well as Kathy and Dennis Lawrence, Mary Dedes, Gene and Faye Haberman, Barbara Sarantou, Penny Jenkins, Sophie Stathopoulos, Marina Cooper, Andy and Maria Petros, and of course, to Father Larry for supporting our efforts.

News from AHEPA by Tony Capranica

YAH enjoyed a fun evening of Halloween celebration at our October meeting. There were several dressed in costume: Faye Grevis was a Fairy Godmother wishing everyone good health and happiness.

Dena Smith was a Witch, Dorothy Yakumithis was a Clown, Roger Worley was Willie Nelson and Elaine was his sidekick. Of course they all won a prize.

We enjoyed a delicious meal of spaghetti and meatballs and salad with garlic bread. The delicious deserts were brought by everyone celebrating Birthdays and Anniversaries.

We are going to go on a Sandpiper cruise on Sunday, October 27 at 4:00 pm. It is a two hour - Fall Foliage Cruise. Sounds like a fun time.

YAH will be sponsoring the Nov. 10th coffee hour after church in celebration of our 30 year anniversary. YAH was founded in Nov. 1989.

We welcome new members at any time !! Dues are only $10.00 per person per year and our meals are $8.00.

Come and enjoy friendship and fun with us..

Wishing you all a very Happy Thanksgiving !!

Ecclesiastes 3

Now is our time...

With only two months left to the 2019 Holy Trinity Cathedral Stewardship Campaign, it is important that we focus on ending this campaign as successfully as we did last year's campaign. Last year we achieved and surpassed our campaign goal of $250,000 and we hope to do the same this year! The money that comes from your generosity in the form of Stewardship is essential towards paying the day to day operating expenses of our beloved Cathedral.

- If you have already fulfilled your pledge, we thank you and bless you!
- If you need to still complete your pledge, we hope and pray that you will do so in the next two months and we thank you and bless you!!
- If you have yet to make a commitment to our Stewardship Campaign, please know it is NEVER too late, and we appreciate anything you can give that will help preserve this Cathedral for generations to come.

In an effort to be transparent, below is the current status of the 2019 Stewardship Campaign to date

Our Goal...	$250,000
Total Stewards Participating in this campaign...	251
Total Amount Pledged ...	$240,421
Total Amount Paid ...	$197,375

2019 Stewardship Update through October 21, 2019 - Our Stewardship goal for 2019 is $250,000

So far 251 Stewards have pledged $240,421

We welcome everyone to be a part of the 2019 Campaign! Fill out your Stewardship Commitment Cards

"Let the Children Come to Me"

HTGOC Monthly Youth Update

November 2019

Hello Parents;

As November nears, the traditional giving season is upon us. Brace yourself for the advertisements, list making and never ending dates of activities. But let us take this opportunity to instill gratitude in our youth in a purposeful way. The best way to beat the rush is to prepare and plan. The Sunday School Program has created one way to spark a gratitude lesson. During November and December we will be collecting hats, gloves, and socks for the Educational Building Lobby Christmas Tree. These will serve as ornaments and be donated to.....In class we will be discussing the need for donations and why its important to help others in our community.

Holy Trinity also offers another way to give back- volunteering to help at the Thanksgiving Dinner for the Madonna Homes November 24th. In years past our youth have thrived in the responsibility and shown great kindness to the attendees. This a a great opportunity to model kindness for our youth as well.

For more ideas how to create a "kindness activist" visit <https://www.today.com/parents/mom-teaches-kids-importance-kindness-great-giving-back-ideas-t119560>.
